

Jörg Junge (Dipl.-Ing. Process Engineering, Karlsruhe / TU Munich) has several years of experience in project and program management. He has worked in leading positions in companies such as Bayernwerk / Viag, Viag Interkom, Cyber Solutions or Tiscali as responsible for strategic IT projects. Since several years, Jörg is working as external consultant to a well-known automobile manufacturer, being responsible for the IT architecture and project management. This includes the management of external offshore service providers.